

(Cambridge Independent Press, Saturday, 25 May 1867)

ESTABLISHED 1825.

EDWARD HAGGIS.

22 and 23, ROSE CRESCENT, CAMBRIDGE,

(Next to Trinity Street.)

BEGS to inform the Members of the University, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Cambridge, that he is now prepared to supply, on hire, Plate, Table Cutlery, Glass, China, Candelabra, Table Linen, and other requisites for the Breakfast, Dinner, Dessert, and Tea Table.

TEA AND COFFEE,

Cider, Claret, Madeira, Champagne, and other Cups supplied. Also, Punch, Badminton, &c., for Dinners a la Russe.

Knives, Forks, Spoons, &c., plated, of good quality, for large Dinners, Routs, Agricultural Meetings, Volunteer Gatherings, &c., &c.