

FUNERAL OF THE LATE JOS. RYDER, J. P., OF RICHMOND

The remains of the late Mr. Joseph Ryder, J. P., of Nutwith House, Richmond, Yorks., were yesterday consigned to their last resting place in the local cemetery in the presence of many relatives and old friends. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. A. Reeve, Wesleyan minister, assisted by the Rev. J. Nield. The coffin was of oak, with massive brass furnishings. It bore a suitable and neat inscription. Deceased was 70 years of age. He was a staunch supporter of the Wesleyan cause, and in politics was a strong Liberal, and a well-known supporter of the late Sir Frederick Milbank, Mr E. R. Turton, and the Hon. Mr Howard. The chief mourners were: - Mr Ezra Ryder and Mr Lonas [Zenas] Ryder, of Cambridge (sons); Miss Ryder, of Nutwith House (daughter); Miss Cannon, Rev. A. and Mrs Reeve, Rev. J Nield, Masham; Mr W. H. Walton (Mayor of Richmond), Ald. and Mrs Sidney Robinson, Mr Longbotham, Spalding; Mr and Mrs Hird, Northallerton; Mr Guthrie, Northallerton; Mr Amies, Cambridge; Mr and Mrs W, Edmundson, Councillor Simon Coates, Mr and Mrs Joseph W, Walton, Mr M. H. Walton, Dr. Williams, Mr T. C. Hutchinson, J. P., Saltburn. Others at the graveside included Mr James Beagerie, Mr Newton Clarkson, Mr Alex. Broadbent, Miss Shaw, Mr Joseph Raine, Rev. J Simpson, Mr and Mrs S. J. Bainbridge, Mr C. Whitell, Mr Rayner, Mr N. Benson, Mr Dowler, Mrs Wood, Mr Sadler, Mr Shout, &c. Choice floral emblems were sent by his wife, children, and grandchildren, the Dowager Lady Milbank and Miss Milbank, Sir David and Lady Dale, Mr and Mrs Amies (Cambridge), and the employes in Cambridge.

(Northern Echo, Tuesday, 21 August 1900)